SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 22.

[For the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.
Virginia's Appeal to Her Sons.
BY H. M. CLARKSON.

Misguided children! sons of honest sires!
And must it come to this? Your mother's heart,
That never nurtured yet but pure desires,
Compelled to play the shuffling debtor's part?

Your mother's brow, so laurel-wreathed by fame,
That used to flash with pride, to hear the praise
Which good men gave, obliged to blush with shame,
Because her son's keep not in virtue's ways?

Virginia, mother of a once-proud race—
No nobler known upon the tide of time—
To hear the story of her own disgrace,
The vulgar jest of clowns of every clime!

Immortal spirits of her statesmen great!
That these sons were of your finer mould!
Virginia fallen from her high estate,
And all for paltry sums of borrowed gold!

Deland sons, your luckless steps retrace,
Your mother begs you on her bended knee;
Virginia must resume her wanted place,
The brightest in her country's galaxy.

Was it for this, my sons, your fathers bled?
Was it for this that Hill and Jackson died?
Was it for this that all my slaughtered dead
Are sleeping in our valleys side by side?

Was it for this, my sons, ye smote Mahone,
And tore the tyrant's clutches from my throat?
Was it to make his faithless ways your own,
O'er widows robbed, and orphans wronged, to plot?

Nay! By those deeds she did in days of yore—
These lustrous deeds which fame has set to song,
My children, nay! Virginia has no poor,
But is not poor enough to stoop to wrong.

HAYMARKET, Va., January 20, 1887.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers.

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.
